

SERMON NOTES

TOUGHEN UP BUTTERCUP! PART 12 "HOPE FOR YOU AND ME" 1 PETER 3

- Last time we looked at 1 Peter 3:18-22 as a whole. Today we will zero in on one verse - v. 18 - as our text and ask the question "How does God forgive sin?"

(1 Peter 3:18)

- This verse is so filled with hope that a spark of faith can ignite it and set you free from the problem of sin.
- Four things to see about the sacrifice of _____:

I. It was a _____ Sacrifice "the just for the unjust"

- the word "for" means "in the _____ of"
- the _____ has several "_____ " of substitutes:
 1. _____
 2. _____

II. It was a _____ Sacrifice "Christ also died for sins"

- No production, _____, artist, _____, poet or _____ can adequately describes Christ's _____.

III. It was a _____ Sacrifice "once for all"

- When Jesus died on the cross He said "_____" - 3 words in the English language - but only one in Greek "_____"

IV. It was a _____ Sacrifice "that He might bring us to God"

- The word "bring" is an interesting word. It is used of the _____ who introduces someone to a _____ or _____. He is called, "the _____" "prosago". We do the same thing in the day and age.
